

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 8, 1881.

It seems to us becoming, now
The State is out of danger,
That certain caustic editors
Should let up on The Stranger.

TAM river is falling to-day.

WHEN the boys make up the next "show pool" they should not forget Geo. Simonds of the Central. He is anxious to share the profits with them.

"OLD BOB," a horse belonging to Henry Newman, of East Maysville, was found dead on the street last night. It is supposed he had been tipping too heavily at the distillery pond.

ADAM ADAMS, his wife and eight children, just from Germany, reached Maysville last night, to settle in this county. Mr. Adams is a brother of Henry Adams, one of the well-known citizens of Mason.

A. C. SPHAR & Co., have just succeeded in making a pressed brick, that in point of color, sharpness of edges, smoothness and solidity, is equal to any made at Philadelphia, or elsewhere. They will be put upon the market in large quantities next spring.

ALRED BROWN, alias Mears, had his examining trial yesterday before Esquires Grant and Pepper, upon the charge of burglary, but owing to a technicality of the law, the charge of burglary was dismissed and he was sent to jail to await his trial, Friday, on a charge of grand larceny.

CONSTABLE W. L. MORAN, of the lower precinct, yesterday served two more warrants charging burglary upon the prisoner, Alfred Mears. They were issued by the Dover Magistrates. It appears there are good reasons for believing Mears has been trying the locks in that section as well as at Germantown.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court since our last report:

Charles Meyer and wife to Henry Dersch, lot on Prospect street in Chester; consideration, $525.
H. H. Parker, commiss: oner to Hannah M. Forman, 81 acres of land in Mason County; consideration, $365.

DR. GEORGE W. BAGBY, of Richmond, Va., a distinguished author and the most popular lecturer in Virginia if not in the whole South, we have been informed by letter, will appear in this city in a few days. He was the former State Librarian of Virginia, Secretary of the Virginia Historical Society, and editor of the Southern Literary Messenger. His lectures and readings are unexceptionable in tone, and mainly humorous, with just enough of earnest matter to season and give zest to the fun, his aim being to make a pleasant evening for his auditors, with bursts of hearty laughter. Our citizens should by all means hear him.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of buyers of holiday goods to the advertisement of J. C. Pecor & Co. This firm is just now displaying an unusually large and very handsome assortment of articles, bought expressly for the holiday season, both ornamental and useful. Their line of writing desks, gift books, juvenile books, leather goods, papeteries, games, toilet articles, etc., have been selected with very great care, and will be found very desirable for Christmas as presents, and very low in price. The firm has an excellent reputation for good taste in the selection of goods, for fair dealing and moderate charges, which the public will find is well sustained this season.

MASON COUNTY STATISTICS.

Figures Furnished at the County Clerk's Office Showing the Number of "Broad Acres" in the Different Precincts of the County, Also the Valuation of Taxable Property at Forty-five and a Half Cents on $100 for the Year 1881.

We are enabled to-day to furnish the readers of the BULLETIN, with a few more figures concerning the statistics of this county. These figures are taken from the Assessors' books for this year corrected and on file in the County Clerk's office. In the first column below our readers will find the number of acres of land in the different precincts given in by the negroes, of the county. The result shows that they have been very slow in accumulating property of this kind during the time they have been free citizens of the Commonwealth:

	Given in by negroes.	Given in by whites.
Maysville, city of	00	1,605
Maysville No. 1	11	4,834
Minerva	10	6,288
Dover	2	7,274
Germantown	00	8,762
Fern Leaf	228	8,998
Sardis	3	9,441
Murphysville	193	9,522
Maysville No. 2	34	11,661
Washington	175	14,226
Lewisburg	78	17,465
Orangeburg	114	21,174
Mayslick	141	24,611

Total 989 145,278
Total number in county 146,263

There is some land in the county given in as town lots, which of course is reckoned in the above total. In the above list, our readers will find 1605 assessed to the city of Maysville. The explanation for this is that the said 1605 acres is land inside of the city limits owned and given in by the citizens of the city of Maysville.

Next will be found the valuation of the taxable property of the county at 45½ cents on the $100:

	Assessed to negroes	Assessed to whites
Germantown	$ 320	$203,022
Murphysville	3,630	207,472
Sardis	130	242,115
Minerva	985	246,190
Maysville No. 1	3,275	260,035
Fern Leaf	5,590	318,499
Dover	2,629	332,315
Orangeburg	2,375	365,045
Maysville No. 2	1,710	511,955
Lewisburg	5,680	734,200
Washington	15,210	773,740
Mayslick	7,990	1,237,529
City of Maysville	7,525	1,539,715

Total $56,990 $6,971,423
Total amount $7,028,403

MANY inquiries having been made as to the meaning of the word "Mascotte," we are now able to state on the authority of certain gentlemen of this city that it means sixteen dollars apiece.

"Swift and Sure"

Langdon & Allison's Combination in the new drama Swift and Sure will appear at the opera house next Saturday evening. It has made decided hits in all the large cities and is everywhere spoken of in the highest terms of commendation. The members of the company, and the dramatic dogs Romeo, Zip and Hero do some clever bits of acting which are incidental to the piece. The Olio which precedes the drama is remarkable for its strength and neatness. Seats may be had at Harry Taylor's.

W. W. WEEON's trotting gelding Tom Brown, died last night of colic at his stable in this city. Tom Brown was eleven years old having been foaled in 1870 in Fleming county, Ky., and was bought by Joe Brown when a three year old for $125. His public record was 2:27½ made at Cynthiana, though he has trotted on a private track a half mile at the rate of 2:12. The sum of seven thousand dollars was offered for him and refused by his owners. At his death he was solely the property of Mr. W. W. Weedon.
